

Work Based Learning Examples

Work-based Learning is an education strategy that links classroom instruction to work-related experiences, aims to increase students' technical skills and knowledge, and helps shape career decision making. Work-based learning is offered on campuses or in community locations and includes explorations, simulations, student-led enterprise, service learning, community classroom or cooperative education, internships, and apprenticeships.

Class	Examples	Class	Examples
Vet Science	Volunteer @ Kennels/Clinics Grooming Job Shadowing Competitions	Photography Journalism Graphics Multimedia	Non school publication contributions Posters Logo Design Advertisements for businesses, plays Competitions
Culinary Arts	Serving for meetings Weddings Catering Events Job Shadowing Competitions	Careers W/Children Intro to Teaching Life Management	Preschool Hours Elementary School Hours Competitions Service Projects
Virtual Enterprise Multimedia Marketing Sports Marketing Entrepreneurship	Marketing Advertisements Brochures Newsletters Websites Posters Competitions	Construction Architecture	Chicken Coop Ticket Booth GRID Installations Floats Competitions
Criminology CSI	Job Shadowing Ride Alongs Police Explorers program MILO training Competitions	Welding	Trailers BBQs Competitions
Sports Medicine	Help trainers at games Competitions	Mexican Dance	Demonstrations Celebrations Entertainment Competitions
Automotive	Project cars Engine Rebuilds Competitions	Robotics	Competitions
Floral	Arrangements for: Weddings Funerals Dances Arrangements for Business or Offices JAM In-Service events Meetings	Urban Rural Wildland	Skills Days Competitions
		CNA Medical Term Medical Occupations 1st Aid & Safety	Clinical Hours Helping at Flu Clinics Helping with Sports Physicals Competitions
		Ag Gov/Ag Econ	Competitions
		Dig. Video Prod. Art Animation Video Game Desgin	Advertisements Promotional Materials Competitions
		Engineering	Competitions
		Aviation	Competitions